DESCRIPTION OF DUTIES:

Sonoma Developmental Center has a permanent, half time vacancy for a Rehabilitation Therapist (Dance), (Dance Therapist). *Full-Time positions are also available (please refer to the Job Opportunity for a full-time position in this classification). The Dance Therapist reports directly to the Program Assistant. The incumbent may work varying shifts and is responsible for the planning, development, and application of therapeutic rehabilitation, knowledge, skills enhancement activities and techniques to the problems of mental, physical, or developmental disabilities found in children, adolescents, adults and geriatrics in the Developmental Center. The Rehabilitation Therapist (Dance) uses body movements and dance as the process in therapeutic intervention, specifically directed toward gaining insight into problematic behavior as well as expanding an individual's freedom of movement, flexibility and coordination. The process provides an opportunity for expression and communication of feelings, needs and conflicts facilitating positive changes in body image.

The Dance Therapist is responsible for the assessment of each individual's needs and interests, determines appropriate rehabilitative objectives and develops activities to meet these objectives. The incumbent may conduct various forms of group and individual therapy; evaluates and documents patient/resident response and progress. The Dance Therapist works with other members of the Interdisciplinary Team to reinforce other treatment modalities and may participate in Interdisciplinary Team conferences regarding the rehabilitative needs of patients/residents.
